THE PROPOSED EXTENSION OF THE VIRGINIA MIDIAND RAILEDAD. —We learn from the Danville News that the people of States ville, and indeed, of all that portion of North Carolina to be penetrated by the proposed ex-tension of the Virginia Midland Rullroad, seem tension of the vingers of the rest in this subject. The people of Statesville have sent a committee, consisting of Hen. R. T. Armfield, member of Congress from that district, Hon. S. A. Sharpe, Mayor of Statesville, and Col. W. A. E isson, to Danville to coofer with the authorities of the Virginia Midland Railroad and to take steps looking to co-operation in efforts to promote the proposed extension. On Monday morning Col. J. B. Yates, the engineer detailed by Mr. Harbour to make the survey of the proposed toute, started out from Dany Ha on horseback, attended by a guide and accompanied by Cal. Armfield and Cal. Eliason. The party will proceed to make the preliminary observation and r. port the result at ease, when definite action may be expected by Mr. Bar-bour and the expitalists who are enlisted with him in this enterprise.

CIRCUIT COURT - Judge Robert Turner mersiding :- The will of Michael Harlow, deceased, was admitted to probate.

The rest of the time of the court was taken up in filing petitions and hearing suggestions in the case of Graham vs. de W. C., V. M. & G. S. R. R. Co.

Corporation Attorney Kemper filed a petition, asking that the $50,000 preferred stock held by the eyey be considered and properly assigned to its proper place in the statement of debts of the company.

Other minor petitions were also filed. A patition for the sale of the road and its ra organization under the piecerceontly adopted at Baltimers, was filed, and of or considerable discussion aroung the coursel the hearing was adjourned over user Friday.

A number of distinguished lawyers from Baltimore, Lynchburg, &r., were present.

THE VIRGINIA MIDLAND RAILROAD CASE. The Court was engaged the greater par, of the day in hosting areumeres upon different questions growing out of the application of the B. & O. R. R. Co for a sale of the Virginia Midland Road. It was contended on behalf of those resisting the sale that the liers had not all been determined, notably were the claims known as labor and supply claims, and the B. & O. R. R. Co.'s claim of substitution to the State's lien under the third mortgage of about $260,000. These matters were set for argument for Friday next, when absent interested coursel might be present. K. Kemper, counsel for the Corporation of Alexandria, filed a petition to have the rights of the city to about $50,000 of preferred stock adjudicated, and whether it was a lien upon the franchises and property of the road, and of the order of its priority. The Court intimated that these
